

My Personal Commitment Contribution to 'Turn up the dial on Racial Equity'

Name

The one thing I commit to do / stop doing / continue doing / do more of (delete as appropriate) is:

By doing this, I'll contribute to 'turning up the dial from tension to trust in actively promoting race equity'. This is my contribution and has value to promoting racial equity.

Racial Equity: Turning Up the Dial from Tension to Trust

Difference & Similarities

- feel safe
- feel loved
- feel included
- feel valued
- feel respected
- feel that you can make a contribution to the world

Stop, Start, Continue, Do More

“I am no longer accepting the things I cannot change, I am changing the things I cannot accept”

Angela Davis

Being comfortable with being uncomfortable

Patience, Grace & Vulnerability

From ‘safe spaces’ to ‘brave spaces’

Walking alongside the other person bring with them on their journey – courageous empathy

5P'S MODEL

1. Promote kind action to dismantle systemic unjust and support marginalised communities
2. Prepared to engage - feel the fear and do it anyway
3. Proactively build meaningful relationships to understand diverse perspectives
4. Provide meaningful impact for racial equity in your sphere of control and influence
5. Publicise your progress